

After narrowly missing Lopez, Reyes turned to the right and was driving across Orchard. The vehicle he was driving headed toward a car stopped at the intersection. Lopez dropped his mail and dashed across the street to save the boy. He reached through the window and turned the wheel just before impact.

The car side-swiped the other car in the intersection, and was headed towards another vehicle when Lopez leaped back through the window and yanked on the emergency brake. He stopped the car just in time as it gently hit the next in line and came to a stop. Lopez estimated the boy had been idling along at about 5 mph to 10 mph.

The boy was taken to the hospital minutes later with minor injuries to his face. Lopez injured his ribs when diving through the window, but the injury was not serious . . .

As you can see, Mr. Speaker, Salvador risked his health to save the life of this young boy. He has made us all—particularly his wife Gloria, his children Yma, Sergio, Isabelle, and Mario, and his co-workers at the Post Office—very proud.

AIRBORNE EARLY WARNING SQUADRON 77

HON. BOB BARR

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 15, 2001

Mr. BARR of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, during times of peace, there are unfortunately many who take our nation's armed forces for granted. In the process, not only do they forget the time-tested wisdom that preparing for war is the best way to avoid it, they also forget the contributions that military units make to the functioning of our republic.

One would be hard pressed to find a better example of this principle in action than Airborne Early Warning Squadron 77, or VAW-77.

VAW-77 performs a vital role in our defense structure, by providing the most valuable of all defense commodities: information. Its E-2C Hawkeye aircraft collect and synthesize the information our fighter and attack aircraft depend on to perform their roles. By performing this function, VAW-77's "Nightwolves" serve as the eyes and ears for surface ships and naval aviators during engagements and exercises.

Fortunately for our families, schools, and neighborhoods, the work of the Nightwolves goes beyond simply deterring America's military enemies from attacking our shores and national interests. During its five year existence, the squadron has deployed to the Caribbean ten times.

These deployments have resulted in the confiscation and destruction of several metric tons of cocaine and marijuana. These are drugs that will not be reaching America's streets due directly to the efforts of VAW-77.

We owe the men and women of VAW-77 a great debt for their service in this area, and I encourage others to join in thanking them for their dedication and success.

TRIBUTE TO CHIEF MIKE HARSHBARGER

HON. JERRY WELLER

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 15, 2001

Mr. WELLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Chief Mike Harshbarger who has retired from the Bourbonnais Fire Protection District after more than 31 years of service. Chief Harshbarger started with the Bourbonnais Fire Protection District on December 29, 1969 and retired on January 1, 2001.

Much has changed in firefighting since Chief Harshbarger started. Firefighting has become more complex and technical. Training levels have escalated and technology keeps changing. When the Chief first started, all he needed was a coat, gloves, and a pair of boots. Today, training is needed to deal with many modern hazards.

Chief Harshbarger has always subscribed to free thinking and is willing to listen to new ideas and suggestions. The Chief ran the fire department with the same philosophy as he ran his business, "Our customers, the people of the district, are first and foremost."

Chief Harshbarger rose to national recognition for his performance as head of the Amtrak rail crossing disaster scene on March 15, 1999. His work was chronicled in the August 2000, Readers Digest.

Chief Harshbarger lives in Bourbonnais Township with his wife Ellie. The Chief is the second generation in his family to serve with the fire department. His father, Lyle, was a long-time member of the fire department. On October 12, 2000, the Kankakee Elks Lodge #627 named the Chief "Citizen of the Year". No one in the 100 years of the Lodge has ever received this award.

Mr. Speaker, I urge this body to identify and recognize other institutions in their own districts whose actions have so greatly benefitted and strengthened America's communities.

IN HONOR OF DAVID OCEGUEDA BRACKER

HON. NANCY PELOSI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 15, 2001

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to David Ocegueda Bracker as he retires from his position as the Executive Director of a non-profit group in my district, Arriba Juntos. For the past three and a half years, David has led this agency through a time of transition and expansion. During his tenure with Arriba Juntos, he has helped low-income residents of San Francisco receive the training they need to find employment or to advance their careers. His inspirational leadership has had a profound effect on our city.

David has dedicated his entire professional life to public service. After receiving his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Social work from San Francisco State University, David began his career by working for four years at the organization from which he is now retiring, Arriba Juntos. As a Project Manager for the Model Cities program, he implemented an employment training program and directed other social services programs.

After a brief stint as Associate Director of the Mission Neighborhood Health Center, he joined the U.S. Department of the Interior as an Area Director. In this capacity, he founded and led an employment training program in the Western U.S. that became nationally known and emulated for its effectiveness.

In 1980, he began working for the University of California, San Francisco. First in the Office of the Public Programs, then in the Chancellor's Cultural Diversity Task Force, and then in the Office of the Vice Chancellor, David spent twelve years with U.C.S.F. While there, he raised support for their health programs and represented U.C.S.F. in the health care community; he helped to design and implement U.C.S.F.'s plan to achieve full diversity on campus; and he secured corporate and foundation support for many projects, including a joint gerontological research project with Mount Zion Medical Center, a pediatric crack cocaine project, a campus capital improvement project, and the 1990 International Conference on AIDS.

After leaving U.C.S.F., he spent four years as the Executive Director of the Hearing Society for the Bay Area before becoming the Executive Director of Arriba Juntos. At Arriba Juntos he has presided over a time of great transition as the agency has adapted to respond to the nation's welfare Reform effort. Where many have been content to reduce the Welfare Reform effort. Where many have been content to reduce the welfare rolls, David has fought to ensure meaningful employment for those losing benefits. He has been concerned not with saving money but with saving lives. David's concern for those around him and his emphasis on helping people better their own lives have earned him the respect and appreciation of the community.

It has been my distinct pleasure to know and to work with David Bracker. He is a caring and able man whose many talents will be missed at Arriba Juntos. I know, however, that he will continue to serve our community in new and creative ways.

I join Arriba Juntos in thanking David for his time there as Executive Director, and wish him, his wife Kathy, and his daughter Megan all the best in their future pursuits.

ECONOMIC GROWTH AND TAX RELIEF ACT OF 2001

SPEECH OF

HON. CHET EDWARDS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 8, 2001

Mr. EDWARDS. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to H.R. 3, because I believe the product is fiscally irresponsible and the process rushed to the point where we are voting on 10-year tax cuts before we even have a 1-year budget in place. Congress is now making budget and tax decisions that will directly affect our families and our nation for the next 10 years and beyond. It is crucial that we make informed, fiscally responsible decisions on the budget and taxes, because the choices we make today could lock in our national priorities for the future.

I will support fiscally responsible tax cuts this year including reducing the estate tax and the marriage penalty as well as expanding
